

Bravo Target Safety Announces Consolidation of Select Branches

New operations hub in Leduc conveniently located next to Edmonton International Airport

Calgary, August 2, 2022 – Bravo Target Safety (Bravo), a national leader in industrial safety services, today announced the consolidation of select Alberta branches and the creation of a new operations hub in Leduc.

“We are proud to officially open our new operations hub in Leduc,” says Kevin O’Brien, CEO, Bravo Target Safety. “It provides close proximity to Edmonton, with its large population and supply of high-quality labour, and very convenient access to the city’s international airport.”

Leduc operations hub features:

- 4.5-acre lot
- 25,000 sq. ft. office/shop
- Custom-constructed lab space
- 44-foot tower for emergency rescue training

“Consolidation makes us more efficient and centralizing more of our people makes for better alignment. Ultimately, we need to remain competitive and highly responsive to our customers’ evolving needs,” adds Kevin O’Brien.

Effective immediately, Bravo is closing its Red Deer, Grande Prairie and Edmonton locations. Operations at Lloydminster, Fort McMurray and Bonnyville remain unchanged.
