

INDIGENOUS PARTNERSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT: Bravo Target Safety and Gitga'at Development Corporation

GITGA'AT
BRAVO TARGET
— SAFETY —

In October 2025, Bravo Target entered into a partnership with Gitga'at Development Corporation (GDC). They are a wholly owned business of Gitga'at First Nation, an Indigenous community located in Hartley Bay, British Columbia. Through strong partnerships, GDC services Northern BC's key industries and large-scale infrastructure projects, while providing meaningful employment opportunities for members.

Bravo Target Safety's strategic partnership with GDC enhances our ability to deliver industrial medical and safety services across northwestern British Columbia, while supporting shared goals of community empowerment, regional economic development, and exceptional service delivery.

We are proud to collaborate with GDC and look forward to building a strong and impactful partnership.
